Eye Work To Your Satisfaction

The kind that we are doing daily—The kind that relieves your eyes of severe strain, making life worth living.

REMARKABLE what a difference correctly-fitted and correctly-ground glasses make in the wearer's comfort. If you have not experienced that in those you are wearing, let us suggest that a change may be necessary; and if necessary, cannot be made too soon.

GLASSES are a poor thing to economize on, yet there is no need to throw away money on them—they may cost you only a trifle—depends entirely upon what your eyes need. We'll tell you your trouble and leave the rest to you.

Limburger Cheese In the Police Court.

SOMEBODY'S LITTLE JOKE

Many Minor Cases Disposed of Yesterday Morning by Judge Wilcox.

Sombody created a small diversion in the police court yesterday morning by spreading a layer of Limburger cheese on the chair of George Lee, the bailiff. Judge Wilcox was the first one to, sportively speaking, "find the scent." He sniffed a while and muttered something about wonderfully strong evidence. Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth tried to explain by saying that some left-over bubonic rat poison had been distributed about the place a day or two previously and that evidently some rodent had partaken of it and crawled to its hole and died. His Honor overruled this motion, saying that the official condiment was well known to have proved a boon and a blessing to rats and that Chillingworth's statement was a reflection on the tender-hearted Board of Health, who had indeed done much for the family of musdecumanus in Honolulu.

Presently David Kaapa entered and Chillingworth whispered something in his ear. The crafty David went down to the cells and returned with a son of der Vaterland, who trembled with emotion when he smelt the unholy stench. After circling the court room a few times the German made a bee-line for George Lee, who blushed violently, and, drawing his penknife, proceeded to scrape some dubious looking substance off Lee's chair. On examination the court unhesitatingly declared the stuff to be ripe Limburger and the mystery was solved. Kaapa is now tracing the various sales of Limburger during the past week and Clerk Zablan has, it is whispered, made satisfactory arrangements with his grocer.

After some feathers plucked from a chicken offered in evidence had been burned the business of the court proceeded.

B. Lynch, D. Carey and J. Doody, three "never-sweats," were remanded until this morning in order that they might seek work. Domingo Ferreira, also charged with vagrancy, will swap compliments with his old acquaintance the judge this morning.

Pang Chin was fined $10 and costs for assault and battery on Lan Chai. Complainant, who had previously told the judge that he had been offered $2 not to follow up the case, said that the affair was all a joke. Other witnesses told the truth, however, and Pang Chin had to pay.

The case of assault and battery against Wong Kun was nolle prossed.
S. Kaneakala, a small boy who stole a chicken was committed for trial. The attention of the small boys of the community seems for the while to have switched from craps to chickens.

Mele, a native woman, said to have stolen a watch from Jim Debeloy, who told she could go, as the case against her had been nolle prossed. Mele said that Delaney owed her $3, and that she had held the watch as security. This is one of the incorruptible Ah On's cases.

Ah Chee and Joseph Kainui, who did not care if school kept or not, were reprimanded and discharged.

John and Mekukala, two indiscreet imbibers, paid the price of twenty-four beers apiece.

Manuel Ledo, who held high converse in the devious gloom with a Portuguese maiden, was excused until 3 o'clock this morning on account of an engagement with the Portuguese minister, which he said that he and his sweetheart had arranged for yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. S. Titcomb was reprimanded and discharged for leaving her better half all alone. The parties are from the Island of Maui, and are visiting here. Mr. Titcomb wanted to return to the rural delights of Hamakuapoko-by-the-sea, but his wife said that she wouldn't go home until the Zealandia had sailed because she wanted to hear the band play at the wharf.

Judge Wilcox did the dove act, and the Titcombs grinned at each other and departed.

Dole and Alex Hart, charged with affray, paid $5 and costs apiece.
Sing Lung, charged with leaving his horse untied, was reprimanded and discharged. He said that he left a man in charge of his cart, who so far forgot his position as to go round a corner to see a man about a dog.

Fugi, charged with a similar offense, was fined $5 and costs. He, unfortunately for his pocket, is not gifted with Sing Lung's imaginative powers.

The inquest on the native, Iala, who fell and broke his neck, on the 25th instant, resulted in a verdict of death from hemorrhage, due to an accident by falling from the upper story of a two-story building in Dowsett Lane, Kapalama, to the ground.

HONOLULU JOINS.

In Paying Tribute to Doan's Backache Kidney Pills.

A young man went to a wealthy and successful manufacturer and applied for employment.

"What can you do?" the manufacturer asked, and the young man proceeded to tell of his ability.

"But I don't want to know what you say you can do," the gentleman replied, "let me know what others say you have done; bring me recommendations from people I know and can trust."

It's the same way with the little conqueror and the public; people want to know what has been done.
Honolulu people are joining the myriads of others in making public the work of this little modern wonder and what your neighbors say should convince the skeptic. The endorsement of citizens is the proof that goes with every box of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills.

Mr. W. F. Williams of this city, is a light-house keeper, and he has held this position for the last 30 years. He says: "I was for a number of years, one of that numerous army of people who suffer with their backs. Mine ached and pained me to no small extent, so that I was glad when I heard of a remedy for it. Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. I obtained some of these at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store, and took them. They gave me great relief, and I make this short narration of my experiences for the benefit of others who perhaps do not know that nearly all backache arises from the kidneys, and the best medicine for it is Doan's Backache Kidney Pills."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box, for sale by all druggists; sent by mail on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

The Leprous Candy Maker.

If there is any business especially suitable to the leper it is that of manufacturing candy. It is light work indoors and does not involve enough exertion to increase the victim's sufferings. Moreover it gives the leper considerable mental pleasure to contemplate the amount of joy he is imparting to the human race in the mixing of sweets. The candy business is a very pleasant trade for the leper, the Crier repeats, so why should the Board of Health hop onto poor Nicholas Cachalas, the leprous Greek, and take his trade away from him? Hasn't a leper a right to make candy if he wants to?
What a brutal act, for the Board of Health to bulldoze a sick man out of his job! This is a free America, the Crier believes, and all men (lepers included) are born free and equal—so what is there to prevent William Jennings Bryan and Carrie Nation engraft-ing the protection of leprous candy-makers into their Democratic platform for 1904?—News-Letter.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Raas did not leave on the Mariposa yesterday, as anticipated.
